

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF.

I agree with Mr. Bush that the banker had a pretty rich thing made out of the exception clause on the greenback. Mr. Bush says my statement that all money is fiat money "is emphatically untrue." The time was when the statement of a proposition by the politicians was accepted by the people of their respective political parties without question as a gospel truth, but that time has passed. A gold standard advocate will now have to give something more than his bare lets rouse a liver to vigorous action. After dinner, if you're bilious, take one of these tiny, sugar-coated Pallets. Take them when you have wind or pain in stomach, giddiness, fullness, loss of appetite, or when you suffer from constiveness, indigestion, sick or bilious headaches.

The makers take the risk of their benefitting you. If they're not satisfactory, your money is refunded.

Can you ask more?

A Prize Essay Contest.

We want to know what the little folks have to say about our store. And in order to get their opinion, we will make two nice presents. One to a little girl and the other to a little boy who will write the best essay on the subject we name. Each week we will print in this space as many of the letters as we can, and keep it up until all are published. On January 1st, the present will be made to the winner.

OUR OFFER.

To the little girl who will write the best essay on "Why I like to trade at Sulzer's," we will give her a present of a nice dressed doll. The doll is a perfect beauty, and was the pick of several hundred. It has long curly hair, brown eyes and pretty teeth, all dressed out in a regular traveling mill outfit. It will be some time yet before he is able to come home.

To the little boy who will write the best essay on "Why do people go to Sulzer's?" we will give a nice Steam Engine, one that will whistle, blow off steam and run all machinery. It is a perfect working model of a real big engine.

Write only on one side of your paper, make your essay short, not to exceed over fifty words.

BRANDENBURG.

John Powell is giving us a good paper. Father Hertholt is still sick in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gough were in Louisville last week.

Mrs. George Chapman spent Sunday with Mrs. J. C. Woodson.

Mr. A. W. Murren's horse sale was largely attended last Friday.

J. L. Mallin has returned from a business trip to Owensboro and Evansville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Neill, of Irvington, were at Mrs. R. H. Neill's last Friday.

Mrs. Lizzie has a regular conservatory. I don't know where you can see as many pretty flowers.

Mrs. Lizzie Board and Mrs. F. Dowdy spent last Thursday with Mrs. Bob Hendricks near Clinton.

Mrs. Richard Henson and Mrs. John Winn spent Friday with Mrs. Martin and Miss Jennie Harlin.

It pays to advertise in this column. "The little blue hat" was found and delivered to Mrs. J. W. R.

Mrs. Jesse Clarkson and children, Big Spring, visited Mrs. E. Winn and Mrs. S. F. Woodliff last week.

Albert Moreman has sold his office opposite the court-house to the County and it will be used for county offices.

Mr. J. Verhel has bought the Bowling property (a little off of Main St.) from Dr. Marlette, who will go back to Alabama.

Mr. Elijah Ashcraft, of Louisville, was here last week, also Maj. Ashcraft, of Paducah and Mrs. Jones from Madison Home.

Little Edwin Hodge, of Henderson, is staying with his aunt, Mrs. Gladie Phillips, while his father and mother are in Cincinnati.

Mr. B. S. Clarkson and son, of Big Spring, Mr. John Winn, and H. Henson, of Irvington, attended the home sale of A. W. Moreman's.

Dee Pusey is in the County Clerk's office and will serve you while Mr. R. H. Neill is out talking to the people about his coming election.

Mrs. Dick Shacklett, of Oak Grove, is in Louisville to see her son, Charlie and Henry, who are attending dental and medical colleges.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvies Winn are very happy in the possession of a baby boy. Mrs. Winn is at her father's, Judge J. F. Woodliff, Monday.

There has been and will be, in the next month, a brisk market for wedding gifts. So our merchants had better have a supply of souvenirs for brides.

It is grand good-nature to have a good sister. When ever I'm introduced to the preachers, it's "This is Mrs. Phillips' sister," and I pass "hands down."

Miss Daisy McIntyre has a music class at Ekron. Daisy was always one of our "brilliant" scholars, successful and thorough, and Ekron is to be congratulated.

Stretto was in town last week, and I understand he didn't look "sore" nor very much lazier, except his side where he had applied the "mustard plaster."

A donation party at the parsonage last Friday night was well attended, and the preacher's family came in for a number of things that conduce to the comfort of the lower man. We all felt the nation and hope the impression is mutual.

The Democratic nominees for County and District offices begin their addresses today (Wednesday) at Garrettsville, and will wind up here November 2d. Populists and Republicans are invited to participate in these discussions.

Mr. John C. Walker's remains were brought here last Tuesday for interment. His children accompanied the body of their dearly beloved father, and were glad, though under circumstances, to see their friends and be in their birthplace again.

A pretty autumn wedding will take place at the Catholic church Tuesday, October 26, at 5 o'clock. The contracting parties, Mr. J. F. F. and Miss Mary Frances Rhodes. A hundred invitations are out for the reception at 5:30. No invitations to the church, everybody welcome.

I notice in the Messenger that Judge C. C. Fairlight has announced himself as a candidate for County Attorney at the November election. Mr. Fairlight is an able lawyer and has made us an excellent police judge. He has been named in the county offices and no man is better acquainted with the duties and responsibilities of a county attorney. If elected will serve the people efficiently.

A notable marriage to-morrow, Thursday, at the Galt House, will be that of Capt. Joe Phillips to Miss Annie L. Fontaine. Capt. Phillips is a native county man, here in our old town, where he commenced stepping towards wealth. His first wife was Miss Alice Galt, who for many years they resided on the farm now belonging to Mr. J. K. Ditto. Mr. Phillips went to them from Kansas and late of Chicago, where he is a familiar figure on the Board of Trade. He is quiet, gentlemanly, and a cordial and pleasant. Annie is a young lady of excellent appearance, intelligent and a bright conversationalist. She will grace the circle into which she will be introduced. A sort of "South and then to Louisville will constitute the honeymoon trip, and next year across the deep blue sea. Accord warm congratulations.
